

The Michigan Science Center (MiSci) is a unique, fun and dynamic hands-on museum, offering programs that inspire curious minds of all ages to discover, explore and appreciate science, technology and math in a fun, dynamic learning environment. Through an interactive approach to science with engaging, hands-on exhibits, live shows, an IMAX® dome theatre, a planetarium, lab experiences and more, MiSci strives to help launch the next generation of Michigan's engineers, scientists and innovators, and significantly impact the cultural and economic renewal of Detroit and Michigan.

MiSci features five theaters, including Michigan's largest screen at the Chrysler IMAX® Dome Theatre; the Dassault Systèmes Planetarium; the Toyota Engineering Theater; the DTE Energy Sparks Theater; the Chrysler Science Stage; a 9,800 square-foot Traveling Exhibits Hall; hands-on exhibit galleries focusing on space, life and physical science; Kids Town just for pint-size scientists; and, education and outreach programs. With more than 24 ways to customize your MiSci experience, there's more than you can see and do in one day!

LOCATION: The Michigan Science Center is located in Detroit's Midtown at the corner of John R Street and Warren Avenue at 5020 John R Street, Detroit MI 48202. The Science Center is easily accessible from all major interstates.

- Hands-on Exhibit Galleries that address subjects such as motion, speed and direction, manufacturing, the inner workings of the human heart, the immense range of wave phenomena, the content and scale of the universe, and much more.
- Chrysler Science Stage, where science comes alive through interactive shows and demonstrations.
- DTE High Voltage Theater, which explores the fundamental principles of electricity and magnetism, energy conversion, and the properties of matter.
- Kids Town Gallery, a place where pint-size scientists can become veterinarians, test the laws of physics in a field house, learn about mixtures and solutions in the kitchen of their very own diner, or just splash, crawl and play.
- Chrysler IMAX[®] Dome Theatre, offering state-of-the-art technology for an unforgettable cinematic experience.
- Dassault Systèmes Planetarium, featuring spectacular virtual-reality journeys that take the audience through the rings of Saturn, into a black hole or anywhere in the Universe.
- Traveling Exhibits Hall and Small Exhibits Gallery, a temporary home for special exhibits.

MICHIGAN CURRICULUM: Exhibits at the Michigan Science Center are closely aligned with the State of Michigan's Grade Level Content Expectations and support M-STEP test achievement. Upon the release of the Next Generation Science and Math Curriculum standards for Michigan, the Science Center will publish content available to assist teachers in reaching their hands-on learning goals with this new education program.
